John Sullivan leads an interactive session of discussion and reflection exploring what we mean by 'education in faith' - the various ways we can learn about and from our faith, and what helps and hinders us in such faith-learning. Saturday 24th March, 2-3.30 pm in Sacred Heart, Liverpool Road. John is an Emeritus Professor at Hope University, supporting Catholic education in many ways. Sure to be an inspiration for all.

Friends of Holy Family Food Collection.

Can you help with any of the following items?

- ✓ tinned meat ie corned beef, spam, ham
- ✓ packets of pasta and rice
- ✓ tinned vegetables
- ✓ tins or packet sauces
- ✓ tins of meatballs

These or similar items will be gratefully received by the families we help. Thanks to all the parishioners who have donated so far for their generosity. Please leave any donations at the back of church.

“These are vegetables, mother. You wouldn’t want me to eat something I’ve given up for Lent, would you?”

CAFOD A cheque has been sent from the parish for £634.36. We collected £367.56 for the recent Family Fast Day and £266.80 from our weekly ongoing collection. There are now plenty of envelopes available in the church porch. Thank you for your ongoing generosity. Government will match fund donations during Lent.

Any ladies who enjoy singing are welcome to join our ‘Singing for Fun’ choir on Tuesday evening from 7pm – 8pm. Come along and have a try. We finished for Easter on 13th March and will return to rehearsals on 10th April.
